

The Governing Board – 2017/2018

The Governing Body is made up of 12 Governors:

- One Local Authority Governor who is appointed by the Local Authority
- Two Staff Governors who are elected by and from staff at the school (one of these is the Headteacher)
- Seven Co-opted Governors who are appointed by the Governing Body
- Two Parent Governors who are elected by parents and are parents/carers of a child at the school. Their role is to give a parent's perspective on discussions and decisions - to speak as parents, not for parents

The term of office for parent governors, for co-opted governors and for the staff governors is four years. The term of office for the Local Authority governor is four years or until termination by the Local Authority.
