

SEND Information Advice and Support Services (SENDIASS)

SENDIASS is an independent team of highly trained and experienced SEND specialists, whose role is to give families, children, young people and professionals impartial and unbiased advice and support.

Their website <http://sendiassnorthyorkshire.co.uk/> is a constantly expanding source of information, including short video clips explaining aspects of the SEND process, leaflets and animations, and they are very active in sharing helpful information on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

They offer:

- A telephone Advice service Monday – Friday 01609 536923
- Information- videos and leaflets
- Support in preparation for meetings and appeals
- Information sessions for parents/carers
- Training and workshops- now all online
- 1:1 support and advice appointments via video call
